

Management Assistant (m/w/d) Fundings

Augsburg/Greater Munich

Health is today everyone's business. As well as a private level, companies increasingly take the longview of their role in human sustainability and the environment in which their organizations operate. Also, "Made in Germany" in MedTech is still a brand and getting Healthcare to each patient is a trustful guarantee.

In these market fields B'IMPRESS as an agency brand accompanies companies from Germany/DACH and EMEA internationally in market access to EU, business partnering by matchmaking, business development, and stakeholder communication. See more at www.bimpress.de/healthcare/.

B'IMPRESS strengthens and advises companies in the implementation of their corporate strategy with sustainable communication: to develop new markets, attract employees, the internal and external communication that makes companies sustainably valuable in the long term: for employees, their customers and society(s).

Together with the marketing & corporate management, we develop the corporate strategies and communications that move companies forward and make them more valuable - and sustainable.

B'IMPRESS coaches and accompanies entrepreneurs (startups/SMEs and international medium-sized businesses), NGOs/foundations, how to make their companies more valuable and "healthier", how to implement future strategies sustainably, how to communicate internally and externally in an "impressive" way, during change processes, internationalization, in specific markets, for "sales on social media" and lead generation: for customers and staff, with political decision-makers, in the press, in social networks, in sales, in start-ups as well as crisis and afterwards.

B'IMPRESS' founder Robert Brunner M.A., coach and trainer (ECA according to DVNLP and INLPTA) as well as certified Balance-Sensor (BoHC)[®], certified uwM-Coach of the Federal Ministry of Labour and Social, is an entrepreneur in the IT & media industry and a corporate communication & change consultant, as a marketer in biotech, food & beverage, IT/IC/SoC manufacturers, healthcare (IT) & life science and cleantech companies. He is characterized by entrepreneurial thinking, sustainability, team spirit and customer orientation.
